

No Questions Asked – Accidental Breakage:

Accidents happen. We want to get you back on the ice as soon as possible. If your rod is unusable due to an accidental breakage complete the form below and return it along with all pieces of your rod to the address listed below at your expense. Your rod will be replaced with an equal rod for a $50 flat fee (Fee of $75 for open water rods). Standard 3-5 week build times will apply. If you wish to make changes to your design, they must be made by phone and additional charges may apply.
